

Open Doors for Danube Countries for All (ODDA)

Objectives

- 5 organisations will create low-threshold materials in Bulgarian, Croatian, German, Romanian and Serbian.
- materials should open communication by key words and sentences, gestures, images, music, dance, etc.
- a part of a comprehensive capacity building for social behavior and engagement
- to reduce stereotyping and prejudices and to raise awareness of the cultural variety in the European countries.

Target groups

Older adults (45 years and older) and social communities, already active or wanting to become active in their localities.

People, who do not have knowledge of English or have not been abroad (here especially women are the most underprivileged group) people of various ethnic origins.

the project can include a wide cross-section of citizens.

Actions and methods

- working materials will be developed by the participants in 6 languages - Bulgarian, Croatian, English, German, Romanian, and Serbian tested by other partner groups and evaluated
- A project website and the use of the social media will make the project process interactive and transparent and make the developed materials available also to others for purposes such as travel.
