

*Entrance ticket to Soirée européenne
In Bad Urach, “Haus auf der Alb”, on Wednesday, 26th July, 2017*

To resolve the mystery about my person, I would like to give a few hints.

*I saw the light of day for the first time in the year ..1820..... in ..Barlad, Romania.
I died in the year ..1873....., the death found me in Heidelberg.*

The following characteristics, actions and ideas create a good picture of me:

I was ruler of Moldavia and of Romania. In 1848 I participated at revolutionary movement in Moldavia and in 1859 I was as ruler of Moldavia –on 5th January and in the same year same month, I was also chosen ruler of the Romanian country. Thus the countries–Moldavia and Romania –became one country.

My humble role in the European history is characterised by

The union is the only political way which will enable our future and will allow our country its organization awaited for such a long time.

*To conclude, I would like to give the Soirée the following words for the way
„To understand is more important than to know“*

Andruşa R. Vătuiu played the role of Alexandru Ioan Cuza
