In Bad Urach, "Haus auf der Alb", on

To resolve the mystery about my person, I would like to give a few hints.

I saw the light of day for the first time in the year 1483 in Eisleben, Germany

And if I am already deceased, I died in the year 1546, the death found me in Eisleben, Germany

The following characteristics, actions and ideas create a good picture of me:

Theology and politics of the church, language in bible translation,
Sermon and creation of songs

My humble role in the European history is characterised by

Reformation

To conclude, I would like to give the Soirée the following words for the way

Eat what's cooked, drink what's transparent, tell what's true
